Partnership with Jaws Performance

October 25th, 2018

Bailey Motorsports is excited to announce a partnership with Jaws Performance for the coming season. Jaws is a name known throughout the snowmobile and Snowcross industry as a leader in the performance exhaust systems. We are looking forward to working closely with the team at Jaws this season.

Established in 1989, JAWS PERFORMANCE is one of the leading snowmobile performance exhaust system manufacturers in the world, with second to none design, testing and manufacturing all done in house, utilizing custom designed computer software & equipment. JAWS is a name you can trust for Performance Trail exhaust systems for 2 and 4 stroke snowmobiles.

Over the years, JAWS has developed a huge inventory and a variety of Performance Trail Pipes and Lightweight Silencers for all types of riders. JAWS Race Pipes and Silencers also power some of the sport's biggest racers to podiums in all disciplines of snowmobile racing, from grass drags to snowcross and everything in between. JAWS also offers expert engine dyno testing / tuning on trail and race sleds alike. For all your snowmobile performance exhaust needs, visit www.jawspower.com
